268,478 new users participated in their first fight. 339,454 are returning users!

Helpful Members

Thank you to these users that were helpful in all different aspects this year. All of these users did something worth recognizing. Give them a follow!

Joxaren4669	♡ Gigi9714	♡ Shias	mittenmeat	40mvin

We'd also like to extend our appreciation to all of Art Fight Staff for the incredibly hard work, and countless volunteer hours, they poured into making this event possible. Please join us in thanking them!

Things to Note

What's Next?

You will still be able to access the site even though this year's event has concluded. All pages remain fully accessible, the only difference being that you will be unable to submit attacks.
If you'd like to continue attacking others, a good alternative is an art trade conducted via PM here, our Discord, or other platform of your choice!

Regarding Future Partnerships

During the Theme Reveal, we established a temporary partnership with another art focused team. Subsequently, several staff and users raised concerns this team had a different stance on the usage of artificial intelligence (AI) generated imagery than we do at Art Fight. We took these reports seriously, investigated, and terminated the arrangement early on account of these findings.
We want to clarify a common misconception: this was a partnership, not a sponsorship; no exchange of money was made during our exchanges, and there were no plans for that to happen. The goal of the partnership was to give our userbase the opportunity to seek art education at an affordable and accessible rate, not for financial gain.
For future partnership opportunities, we will evolve our diligence process to more thoroughly ensure our partners align with the values of our site. Art Fight will always remain firmly against the usage of AI generated imagery.

Auto Closing of Rating Reports

Since this year's points have now been finalized, all rating reports that moderators did not get to will be automatically closed. Site moderators will continue to work on non-rating reports throughout the year!

Temporary Changes Regarding Off-Season Site & Discord Functionality

During the off-season, the site typically remains open for users to browse and submit characters, with the caveat of no longer being able to submit attacks until the next event. This year, however, we will be experimenting with a two month development period. During this time, users will not be able to edit profiles, create new reports and comments, or upload new characters and images. However, the ability to browse the site, download attacks, and view characters will remain! This period will begin September 1st and end on November 1st, and we will provide a detailed list of what staff worked on and updates to our rules/guides sometime during November, if not sooner. Additionally, we have decided to place the Art Fight Discord server on read-only for a month as well, starting September 1st and ending October 1st. This will give chat moderators time to review the Discord as well as assist site moderators in updating rules, attack rating guides, and filtering guides.

The goal of the Art Fight staff team has always been to provide a safe place for artists, though as our site and Discord server grow exponentially each year, we have found ourselves in a difficult position. Doubling or quadrupling our staff count would not reach the staff to user ratio required to sufficiently cover the number of reports we receive during, before, and after the event. Therefore, we feel that a development period to examine these issues and implement proper systems and resources for our team to handle them is necessary. We also want to focus on and emphasize the need for backend moderation, to streamline reporting, and to provide clarity to our users.

We believe that this hiatus is necessary for our staff team; most of our team are volunteers and we believe that they deserve time off to settle after the event. We also invite you to use this time to manage your own burnout; as always, please take care of yourselves! Thank you for your continued support of Art Fight!

Art Fight 2025 Achievements

2025 Achievements are here! They have been automatically given out - you must have submitted at least one attack to be eligible.

Fossils Loyal - Crystals Loyal - Traitor - 2025 Winner

Art Fight 2024 Achievements

2024 Achievements are also here and have been handed out! As we explained previously, we are transitioning away from achievements being completed close to the next fight, and instead complete them right after the event.

Seafoam Loyal - Stardust Loyal - Traitor - 2024 Winner

Thank you to Axel for the beautiful banners, team badges, and animation reveal.

Minigames

If you are interested in art-based minigames, join our Discord server! While we do not have an ETA for their opening at this time, keep an eye out for their return in the next few months following the development period for our site and Discord moderation team.

Progress Update on Fossils vs Crystals Merchandise

Thank you to everyone who purchased Fossils vs Crystals merchandise. This was our first year independently selling merch, and we were blown away by the amount of orders. It is safe to say that it was a success, and you can definitely expect future merch, especially Art Fight branded merch!

If you have purchased our Fossils vs Crystals merchandise, be sure to keep an eye on your email as we will soon send out an update email regarding the current status and timeline!

Contribution Tier 1 and 2 Reached!

We are so excited to announce that we reached Tier 1 and 2, and are $11k away from reaching Tier 3! We are endlessly thankful for the overwhelming support this year, and are so thrilled for the future of Art Fight. Keep an eye on future newsposts as we plan to release a feature roadmap!

Moderator & Developer Applications

Our volunteer moderator applications will remain closed as we migrate application tracker systems, but our Developer applications are open! We're looking for both back and frontend developers, in both paid and volunteer positions. Click here to view the application form!

For more information on both of these opportunities, you can visit our Volunteer Information page. If you are interested in becoming a part of our team, please thoroughly review the information found there before submitting an application.

Feedback Form

Did you love Art Fight this year? Was there anywhere we could improve? If you've got any thoughts on what worked for you this year and what didn't, please consider filling our our Feedback Survey as an opportunity to tell us! We'd love to know so that we can make next year's Art Fight better.

2026 Theme Poll

This year is a little different. Art Fight 2026 will be celebrating its 10th year anniversary. With that in mind, we wanted to ask the userbase whether they'd like to celebrate with us... in the form of a possible re-match! Check out stage one of the Theme Poll to let us know your thoughts.

Thank you all for participating in Art Fight 2025: Fossils vs Crystals

Please consider going back and thanking all of your attackers for the wonderful work they did for you!

Oh ugg my first time being on the losing team since 2019 oof -1000HP -1000HP -1000HP -1000HP

In all seriousness it was super fun how this year felt like a real fight instead of having one team take the lead immediately and keep it for the entire month
